

From: Michael Gates
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/23/02 10:03am
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

This settlement is simply ineffective, since it uses overly-restrictive definitions of terms such as "Windows OS", "API", and the like. These definitions allow Microsoft to completely escape from the terms of the settlement simply by changing the names of its products, and Microsoft comes up with a new name for every version of Windows anyway.

Michael Falcon-Gates

Get your FREE download of MSN Explorer at <http://explorer.msn.com/intl.asp>.